Lesson #1

- Outsiders need to tread lightly. Even if you are offering help in a time of need

Lesson #2

- Be prepared for personnel, agency and local government issues. In this type of event they may get magnified.

Lesson #3

- Get locals involved

Lesson #4

- Well meaning folks that offer to help are not always equipped. Make wise decisions as you hand out assignments

Lesson #5

- Most unions have amazing resources, $$ and well trained CISM Peers and MHP

Lesson #6

- Understand who the players are and make an effort to communicate early on.

Lesson #7

- At an MCI, the media is only one person away from infiltrating your ranks.

Pitfalls to Avoid in an MCI

- Confusion
- Duplication of effort
- Heartache for those vetting the responders to an MCI – Simplify the process
- No accountability
- No Pre-planning
